Texas A&M University is comprised of sixteen colleges and two branch campuses in Galveston and Qatar. Texas A&M University offers undergraduate, graduate and professional programs. In 1963 the name was changed from the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas to Texas A&M University. In 2013, Texas A&M University officially added the Texas A&M University Health Science Center (TAMUHSC) under its administration and acquired the Texas A&M University School of Law from Texas Wesleyan University.

Texas A&M University is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges. Additional information about accreditation for individual colleges and programs is listed in the University catalogs.

The academic year for undergraduate and graduate students consists of 15-week fall and spring semesters and the summer terms, which are two 5-week terms and a 10-week semester. The academic year for students in professional programs varies and is detailed in the University catalogs.

Official transcripts are prepared in accordance with the policies of Texas A&M University, the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges and the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers. All official transcripts are produced by the Office of the Registrar, Texas A&M University. This transcript is provided with the understanding it will not be released or transferred to any other person, agency or party without the consent of the student, pursuant to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974.

The unit of credit is the semester hour. Each semester hour represents a class meeting 1 hour per week or a laboratory of 2 to 4 hours per week for 15 weeks. An equivalent amount of work is required for semesters of fewer than 15 weeks. Each course listing on the front of this transcript includes: Subject area and course number, course title, credit hours, grade earned, and grade points earned.
